

Amoureuse Adaptations

Véronique Sanson Amoureuse

[Verse 1]

Une nuit, je m'endors avec lui
Mais je sais qu'on nous l'interdit
Et je sens la fièvre qui me mord
Sans que j'aie l'ombre d'un remords

Et l'aurore m'apporte le sommeil
Je ne veux pas qu'arrive le soleil
Quand je prends sa tête entre mes mains
Je vous jure que j'ai du chagrin

[Chorus]

Et je me demande
Si cet amour aura un lendemain
Quand je suis loin de lui
Quand je suis loin de lui
Je n'ai plus vraiment toute ma tête
Et je ne suis plus d'ici
Oh, je ne suis plus d'ici
Je ressens la pluie d'autres planètes
D'autres planètes

[Verse 2]

Quand il me serre tout contre lui
Quand je sens que j'entre dans sa vie
Je prie pour que le destin m'en sorte
Je prie pour que le diable m'emporte

Et l'angoisse me montre son visage
Elle me force à parler son langage
Mais quand je prends sa tête entre mes mains
Je vous jure que j'ai du chagrin

[Chorus]

Et je me demande
Si cet amour aura un lendemain
Quand je suis loin de lui
Quand je suis loin de lui
Je n'ai plus vraiment toute ma tête
Et je ne suis plus d'ici
Non, je ne suis plus d'ici
Je ressens la pluie d'autres planètes
D'une autre planète

Gary Osborne Amoureuse

[Verse 1]

Strands of light upon bedroom floor
Change the night through an open door
I'm awake but this is not my home
For the first time, I'm not alone

Reaching out, I touch another's skin
Breathing out as he's breathing in
Deep inside, I feel my soul aflame
Can my life ever be the same?

[Chorus]

I should have told him
That I'd do anything if I could hold him
For just another day
For just another day
His love is something I will not forget
When I am far away, when I am far away
I feel the rainfall of another planet
Another planet

[Verse 2]

Close together in the afterglow
I remember how his loving flowed
Turned the key into another world
Made a woman of a simple girl

Daylight comes as we both know it must
Soon my fantasy will turn to dust
But I would give him anything he asked
If my first love could be my last

[Chorus]

I should have told him
That I'd do anything if I could hold him
For just another day
For just another day
His love is something I will not regret
When I am far away, when I am far away
I feel the rainfall of another planet
Another planet

Patti Dahlstrom (Emotion)

[Verse 1]

Lonely women are the desperate kind
And I am hanging at the end of a line
Losing hope when the call doesn't come
It's a feeling I choose over feeling none

I'm running out of ways of makin' you care
As hard as I try you know it just isn't fair
For all I give, I'm only getting old
And when I think I'm finally back in control

[Pre-Chorus]

Ah, then you stumble in
And I am tumblin' back to where it begins

[Chorus]

'Cause you can spread my wings
And send a thousand dreams
To flood a million streams with emotion
And you can fill my nights
Oh, and blow out all my lights
Until I see nothing right by emotion
My emotion

[Verse 2]

The room is filled with only emptiness
And I am sitting here with even less
Nothing doing when there's nothing to do
And when I've decided we are finally through

[Pre-Chorus]

Then you stumble in
And I go tumblin' back to where it begins

[Outro]

Cause you can spread my wings
And send a thousand dreams
And flood a million streams with emotion
And you can fill my nights
Oh, and blow out all my lights
Until I see nothing right by emotion
My emotion

Cause you can spread my wings
And send a thousand dreams
And flood a million streams with emotion
And you can fill my nights
Oh, and blow out all my lights
Until I see nothing right by emotion

Oh you can spread my wings
And send a thousand dreams
And flood a million streams with emotion
And you can fill my nights
Oh, and blow out all my lights
Until I see nothing right by emotion
